STAGE MANAGEMENT LECTURER
WESTERN AUSTRALIAN ACADEMY OF PERFORMING ARTS (WAAPA)
MOUNT LAWLEY CAMPUS
$ 95,979 to $113,978 (ACADEMIC LEVEL B)
3 YEAR, FULL-TIME CONTRACT

Overview

The Western Australian Academy of Performing Arts (WAAPA) at Edith Cowan University is one of the world's leading Performing Arts Academies. WAAPA'S Production and Design Department is an integral part of a vibrant, artistic and creative environment encompassing a comprehensive suite of performing arts courses, inclusive of Acting, Music Theatre, Dance, Classical Voice, Jazz, and Contemporary Music, amongst others.

WAAPA's Production and Design programs prepare students in a range of interpretive and technical theatre disciplines through teaching methods designed to recognise and refine the skills and potential of each individual. WAAPA provides the Production and Design students with the greatest diversity of 'on the job' theatrical experiences.

The Stage Management course within the Production and Design program is looking to attract a highly motivated and dynamic leader. The successful candidate will lead and teach into the Stage Management course and will have a strong background in Stage Management for performance. It would also be beneficial to have knowledge of Production Management.

Appropriate professional qualifications are essential and educational experience with particular emphasis on Stage Management would be beneficial.

The successful candidate should possess the following:

- A professional profile as a Stage Manager;
- Strong working knowledge of Production Management;
- The ability to inspire students;
- Strong leadership and organizational skills;
- Completion of a higher degree would be desirable
- Completion of a Certificate IV in Training and Assessment within 6 months of appointment (if not already completed) is essential.

Candidates will also demonstrate personal attributes that are congruent with the University's values of Integrity, Respect, Rational Inquiry and Personal Excellence.

Benefits & Remuneration

This full-time, fixed term position attracts remuneration of $95,979 to $113,978 (Level B) plus 17% University superannuation contribution.

ECU supports a work/life balance for staff. Benefits such as flexible working arrangements may also be negotiated to meet your personal circumstances.
